DETECTIVES TO INVESTIGATE.

Hospital Authorities Ask Aid in Identifying a Patient. Inspector Boardman has received a me sage from the Emergency Hospital stating that an officer was wanted to make an investigation concerning the identity of a party under treatment there. The patient in question is the man who was admitted to the hospital February 26, after he had been found beside Pennsylvania rallroad tracks near Bowle station. The doctors were unable to tell how be had received his injuries, but it is supposed he fell from a moving train. A broken whisky bottle was found in his pocket.

Papers in his pockets indicated that his name is W. B. Jones. Among these was a letter, evidently from his wife, signed Virginia Jones, 86 Chapel street. Norfolk, It is believed the man is now insane.

Inspector Boardman will communicate with Mrs. Jones in Norfolk and the police officials of other places, in an attempt to learn who he is. At one time the sick man told the doctors he lived in Baitimore, on Eutaw street.

James Raley and John Weeden were tried in the Police Court today charged with stealing a number of spoons from the Hotel Raleigh. Raley had formerly been employed at the hotel. Yesterday he went there with Weeden, and last night they there with Weeden, and last night they were arrested by Policeman Yoe and Aud. Roley had several of the spoons in his possession, and the men were talking about a division of money, it is claimed, that had been obtained from sales of spoons. Both men, it is stated, had been drinking. Weeden denied any knowledge of the theft, but as he was with Raley at the time he was held guilty by Judge Kimball. The defendants were fined $10 each.
